

Servicon Cares Donates $10,000 to South Bay Workforce Investment Board

Funds will support organization's focus on career development, training and placement

Culver City, Calif. (February 08, 2021) – Servicon Cares, a Donor Advised Fund that supports local communities and worker well-being, has donated $10,000 to the South Bay Workforce Investment Board (SBWIB).

The SBWIB is a leader in workforce innovation and development throughout Southern California. Its mission is to build a world-class workforce through strategic alliances with business, education and community partners.

“We are extremely grateful to Servicon for their generous donation and we are also very pleased that Servicon has come to trust the South Bay Workforce Investment Board as a reliable resource for qualified candidates to meet their hiring needs. We appreciate the support they have provided the organization and look forward to more collaboration in the years to come,” said SBWIB Executive Director Jan Vogel.

Added Servicon Chairman Michael Mahdesian, “We have successfully partnered with SBWIB for more than two years and are delighted to support an organization that not only drives economic growth, but changes lives within our communities as well. In addition to advancing recruitment and hiring, SBWIB’s programs provide critical assistance and opportunities for youth, veterans and homeless individuals.”

SBWIB serves 11 cities in the Los Angeles South Bay region including El Segundo, Gardena, Hawthorne, Hermosa Beach, Inglewood, Lawndale, Torrance, Lomita, Manhattan Beach, Redondo Beach and Carson.

Servicon Cares is a component fund of the California Community Foundation, a public charity under section 501(c)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code. Contributions to the California Community Foundation represent irrevocable gifts subject to the legal and fiduciary control of the foundation’s board of directors.

About Servicon

Servicon is a provider of exemplary custodial, environmental, and maintenance services for complex facilities. Our philosophy is to define, measure, and validate goals and we are committed to doing the right thing by our clients, people, and community. Our purpose is to elevate the cleaning industry by providing healthy environments – this includes exceptional service delivery and taking care of people through training, education, and recognition. Servicon pioneered sustainable cleaning and our vision is to continue to elevate the industry through integrity, leadership, and innovation. We are experts in infection prevention and maintaining safe, healthy environments for facilities and critical environments, including healthcare, aerospace, commercial, municipal, entertainment and manufacturing.